

CUBAN ELECTION PUTS MENOCAL IN PRESIDENT'S CHAIR

Landslide for Conservatives Leads Them to Claim Whole Ticket.

HAVANA, Nov. 2.—The election of Gen. Mario Menocal and Enrique Jose Varona, respectively, candidates for the presidency and vice presidency, of the republic on the conservative ticket, and of all the other candidates put forward by the conservatives, appears practically assured.

The liberals, however, were still claiming victory.

Gen. Manuel Sanguity, secretary of state, in leaving the state department late last night, said that while it would be impossible fully to determine the result until today, the trend of the balloting everywhere was strongly favorable to the success of the conservatives and the defeat of Alfredo Zayas, candidate of the liberals for president, and the others on the liberal ticket.

Advices received at conservative headquarters here indicate that General Menocal had a landslide in his favor, carrying all six provinces of the island. In the city of Havana Gen. Manuel Andrade, conservative, was elected mayor by a majority of 1,000.

Absolute order prevailed in all parts of the island during the balloting.

The delay in receiving the returns is due to the extreme slowness of election officials in counting the votes. As an instance, in Havana four hours after the polls had closed the official figures in only half a dozen election districts were available. A majority of these favored General Menocal. No official returns have been received from the interior.

Everywhere great satisfaction is expressed over the success of the government's efforts to maintain order during the balloting, although some regret was evinced that the use of troops was necessary. The election was held under supervision of specially detailed army officers, commanding sufficient men to compel maintenance of order.

Care was taken to see that the soldiers and rural guardsmen remained at a respectful distance from the polls. They prevented noisy persons from passing their lines, and compelled all persons to vote quietly and in order.

Patrols of cavalry and infantry constantly circulated in Havana to prevent the gathering of crowds, but their services were not needed, while the police did not make more than the usual number of arrests.

'MUM SHOW CLOSED TO HONOR SHERMAN

Mark of Respect to Memory of Late Vice President.

As a mark of respect to the memory of the late Vice President, the managers of the chrysanthemum show in the botanical gardens at Fourteenth and B streets have closed the show today and will not open the doors until tomorrow morning. The show will open tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and will be open all day.

The feature of the show yesterday was the christening of the "Margaret Hollins" bloom, for Mrs. P. S. Hollins, of Nashville, Tenn.

Col. John B. Mosby Is Much Improved

So great has been the improvement in the condition of Col. John B. Mosby, now confined at Garfield Hospital for a long-standing ailment, that the physicians have decided not to operate on him today. It was originally planned to do so.

It is believed at present that an operation would be of little benefit, and that he will be discharged from the hospital before many days have passed.

NICARAGUAN WOMEN PRAISE MARINES OF U.S. RESCUE FORCE

Relief Afforded Girls of Be-leaguered Town Brings Letter of Thanks.

Gratitude is expressed by the women of Granada, Nicaragua, for the relief afforded the beleaguered town by Major Smedley D. Butler and a company of American marines, who, during the Nicaraguan rebellion, made their way to the city before the rebels had a chance to enter. The appreciation of the inhabitants is expressed in a letter addressed to Rear Admiral W. H. H. Southard and forwarded to the State department. Accompanying the letter was a bouquet.

There were about forty girls of different nationalities, including American, in a seminary at Granada and they were the subject of much apprehension until the American troops reached the city and insured them against attack. "We celebrated with enthusiasm your arrival on the shores of Nicaragua as an omen that soon our ills would cease," is a phrase in the letter which causes the State department to believe that anti-American feeling does not permeate all classes in Latin-America. The judgment and prudence of Major Butler is highly commended.

RUBBER KING SUES FOR DIVORCE FROM TRAVELING WIFE

J. Howard Ford Alleges She Is in Far East With German Baron.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—J. Howard Ford, millionaire "Rubber King," has taken steps to get an absolute divorce. Mrs. Ford, who was Miss Bertha Norman, of Bremen, Germany, is in the Philippines. It is said. The Fords have done a great deal of entertaining at the Plaza Hotel in this city and at their country place, Stony Ford, near Goshen, N. Y., where Mr. Ford has a horse breeding farm.

It was learned yesterday that attorneys for Mr. Ford, recently asked Supreme Court Justice A. S. Tompkins at White Plains to appoint commissioners to take testimony in foreign cities. Justice Tompkins did so. Papers were served on Mrs. Ford through her attorney, William F. Clark, of No. 185 Broadway. (In her behalf he denied all the allegations, but filed no cross-interrogatories, which is taken to indicate that Mrs. Ford will not fight the suit.)

A German baron is named as co-respondent. It is charged that Mrs. Ford traveled with him from Nice, France, to the Philippines. She is living at Slay. It is said.

Last month Mrs. Ford left the Ford apartment in the Plaza Hotel, saying she was going to Bremen to visit her parents. Mr. Ford sailed soon afterward. When he reached Bremen he did not find his wife at her parents' home, and he put detectives on her trail.

They learned, it is alleged, that Mrs. Ford and the baron had traveled together and stayed at hotels in Genoa, Rome, Naples, Florence, and Nice before they set sail for the Philippines. Witnesses to Mrs. Ford's alleged misconduct made affidavits before American consuls abroad. These affidavits, with letters that passed between Mrs. Ford and the baron were given to Mr. Ford's attorneys. Most of the witnesses are hotel servants.

Program for Police.

NO STATE PARDON FOR THE ALLENS

Virginia's Governor Makes It Known He Will Not Interfere.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 2.—Floyd and Claude Swanson Allen, now awaiting the electric chair in the death cells of the county jail here, may expect no clemency from Governor Mann, according to authoritative information today. The governor, it is said, has made it known that the Allens' last resort is the court of appeals.

The two mountaineers, father and son, are condemned to die November 22 for their part in the murders in Judge Massey's court at Hillsville last March. Their appeal is now pending.

Gets Absolute Divorce.

Justice Barnard in Equity Court No. 2 yesterday granted an absolute divorce to Daisy Harding from Garfield Harding. A co-respondent was named by the wife and testimony supporting the allegations in her bill was given before the examiner.

Are You Reducing The High Cost of Living?

THE cost of living is just as much a personal problem as it is a National one. What are you, yourself, doing to reduce it?

When you pay money out and get nothing back you are wasting it—that's what paying rent amounts to.

When you take this same rent money and begin buying a home you are investing your money instead of wasting it. Such payments on a home will soon make you the owner of that home, whereas if you continue to pay rent, you will never own anything but a bunch of rent receipts, so far as this rent money is concerned.

Make One of These Homes Your Savings Account

That's what it really amounts to. And the money you are now saving in this way can be utilized to give yourself and family some of the present comforts and luxuries of life, and you are still as well off, for the money you are paying on your home represents just as many dollars and cents saved as though it were deposited in a savings bank.

Here Are 3 Unusual Home-Buying Opportunities

THE Cost of Living isn't worrying High View residents. Any merchant who enjoys High View patronage will tell you that this is so.

But why should High View residents worry about the cost of living? They are buying homes with the same money that formerly went for rent—in this way a former expense had been turned into an investment.

They are, therefore, in a better position to enjoy life's comforts and luxuries and pay for them. They are building even more substantially for the future. In a short time to come they will have their homes entirely paid for, and all their income can then be devoted elsewhere, with no thought of rent to be paid month after month.

High View homes are of the most substantial construction. The fronts are of beautiful pressed brick. They contain six full rooms and bath. Modern conveniences throughout.

The price is $3,300—cash or the SHANNON & LUCHS way of $200 cash and $26.92 per month.

TO INSPECT—Take any 9th street car marked "Brookland" or "North Capitol and W streets," get off at Rhode Island avenue, and walk one square east.

THIS photographic reproduction was taken in the dining room of one of our Columbia Heights homes. You are looking toward the parlor and through the parlor can be seen the hall with its front door of plate glass.

At the left of the dining room is the door leading directly into the kitchen. Then there is another door in this kitchen that leads directly into the hall, so that the woman of the house can reach her front door without tramping through the dining room and parlor.

Note the massive proportions of the dining room drop light, shown in the foreground of this picture. All the other lighting fixtures are of equally as fine a caliber.

Another thing that we would call attention to is the fact that this picture was taken without the aid of a flashlight—one of the best evidences in the world of the perfect natural lighting facilities of this home.

There are six rooms in all in this home and a perfectly appointed bath. Each room is complete in every detail, leaving nothing to be required but your furniture.

We sell you this home for $150 cash and $22.50 per month. The full price is $2,750.

TO INSPECT—Take any 11th street car going northwest, get off at Columbia road, and walk one square east; or any 14th street car going northwest, get off at Columbia road, and walk one square west.

YOU don't have to guess what your neighborhood is going to be like at 14th and Perry Streets. The homes we are selling are the last to be constructed at 14th and Perry Streets. The quality of the neighborhood is already apparent, and you will find it a mighty fine neighborhood.

Here we are selling homes of character and individuality—homes with four porches where the ordinary home enjoys but one or two. Homes with hardwood floors upstairs as well as downstairs, whereas ordinary homes have no hardwood floors at all, and many homes of quality enjoy hardwood floors only on the first floor. Homes with two fireplaces (one in the parlor and another in the dining room), whereas many homes have none at all. Homes with extra large front terraced lawns, and extra deep back yards.

And we sell this home for $300 cash and $38 per month. Thirty-eight dollars will not rent you a home equal to this—yet the $38 or so that you are spending for rent will buy this home.

TO INSPECT—Take any 11th street car going northwest, get off at 14th and Perry streets, and you are right at the properties.
